Training that works

Cleaning Service

To support your staff in the cleaning industries, The Warrington Business School offers a range of flexible training to help your people improve their skills on or off the job and their workplace performance. Current and reliable techniques will grow staff confidence, organisation reputation, efficiency and reduce accidents and incidents.

Why do your employees need training?

To raise the professional image of the sector, increasing staff knowledge to support their expertise.

Who should do this training?

All staff involved in every sector covering general cleaning duties.

What's involved?

The NVQs are work based and cover a large range of optional units which allow the course to be mapped to your organisation needs and the appropriate role within the cleaning sector.

What type of training is available?

NVQ Level 2 - cleaning support for cleaning service employees covering health and safety, security for lone workers, manual and machine cleaning.

NVQ Level 3 - facilities support for managers and supervisors covering retail, security and cleaning.

Why choose us as your training provider?

We are a grade 1 provider and fully understand the needs within this sector. We will work with you to provide a service that is tailored to meet your specific organisation needs. We ensure that the delivery is flexible; at a time and place to suit you and is delivered by highly qualified staff with relevant occupational competence within the field.
