

Skills for Life

To support the literacy and numeracy skill development of your employees, ensuring government and organisational requirements are met, The Warrington Business School offers a range of flexible training courses to increase your organisation effectiveness and reduce supervision time.

Why do your employees need training?

Research has shown that literacy and numeracy skills gaps are reducing organisational effectiveness and profitability.

Who should do this training?

All staff who have basic or no qualifications in literacy and numeracy or staff who require updates to increase confidence and skills.

What's involved?

The courses are flexible and are designed to allow employees to study and learn within their workplace, at times to suit your company, causing minimal disruption to the working day.

What type of training is available?

- Certificate in Adult Literacy - Entry Level 3 to Level 2
- Certificate in Adult Numeracy - Entry Level 3 to Level 2.

Delivery of the courses is in small groups via distance learning or on a one to one basis to meet employee and organisation requirements.

Why choose us as your training provider?

We are a grade 1 provider and fully understand the needs within our sectors. We will work with you to provide a service that is tailored to meet your specific organisation needs. We ensure that the delivery is flexible; at a time and place to suit you and is delivered by highly qualified staff with relevant occupational competence

Key Contact:

Sue McGreavey 01925 494313
Sector Specialist smcgreavy@warrington.ac.uk

training@thewbs.co.uk
www.thewbs.co.uk
0845 849 0020